Purpose of the Friends

Through membership dues, donations and fundraising efforts, the Friends are proud to provide the following to the Sandown community:

~Museum Passes

~Adult & Children Programs

~Summer Library Program Events and Materials

~Equipment and furnishings for the Library

The Friends of the Sandown Library is a non-profit organization. They have been supporting the library since 1963.

About the Friends of the Library

Meetings:

We always welcome people to our meetings. Meetings are held at 6:30pm on the 4th Monday of the following months: January, March, May, July & September.

The 1st Monday of December, the Friends get together for their annual holiday gathering.

Book Sale Corner

The Friends organize and maintain the Book Sale Corner at the library. The public is welcome to come and purchase books, audiobooks and DVDs any time the library is open. Purchases are by donation.

Annual Events

Each year, the Friends host a variety of programs including:

~Luncheon during Sandown Town Deliberative Session (Feb)

~Reach the Beach Relay Race Transition Station (Sept)

~NH Basket Raffle (Fall) & Variety of Basket Raffles (June)

~Ice Cream Social for the Summer Library Program Kick-Off (June)

~Fall Friends (Oct)

~Annual Book Sale (Oct)
